Alison and Harley are playing together for the first time on the SWATCH FIVB World Tour since the fall of 2006 when the Brazilians were eliminated during the country quota playoff rounds in Vitoria and placed ninth in Acapulco.

Alison and Harley are the top team on the 2009 SWATCH FIVB World Tour.

Alison and Harley have placed on the SWATCH FIVB World Tour podium four times in 2009 with a second in the season opening stop in Brasilia followed by a gold medal in Shanghai where both finals were All-Brazilian affairs.

Alison and Harley were third in Rome and placed on top of the podium in Myslowice, Poland.

Alison and Harley have won their last 13 SWATCH FIVB World Tour matches since losing to the Brazilian Pedros (Cunha and Salgado) in Rome in mid-May.

Harley and Pedro Salgado won nine SWATCH FIVB World Tour gold medals, including 2008 stops in Australia, China, Italy, Switzerland, Mallorca and Brazil.

Harley and Salgado won the 2008 SWATCH FIVB World Tour point’s title.

Harley was the 2008 SWATCH FIVB World Tour most outstanding player.

Alison won a 2008 SWATCH FIVB World Tour gold medal with Pedro Cunha in Bahrain.

On the Brazilian Tour this season for five events, Alison and Harley have a 17-6 match mark with three “final four” finishes and two medals.

The 2009 SWATCH FIVB World Championships presented by ConocoPhillips is the 234th men’s SWATCH FIVB World Tour Beach Volleyball events (open, Grand Slam, Olympic and Goodwill). The first SWATCH-FIVB World Tour event was played February 17-22, 1987 in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

- Brazil has now advanced a team(s) to the semi-finals in 223 FIVB events.
- Brazil’s streak of 114-straight “final fours” ended at the France 2005 event (Event No. 171). Prior to France, Brazil’s last non-semi-final appearance was Portugal 1996 (Event No. 56).
- Brazil has had a team(s) in 196 Gold Medal matches.
- Germany has advanced two teams to the Gold Medal match in one event at a 2005 SWATCH FIVB World Tour.
- There have been 162 events where two different countries battled for a FIVB Gold Medal.
- Brazil vs. United States ........................................Brazil leads 24-17
- Brazil vs. Germany .........................................................Brazil leads 15-4
- Germany vs. United States ..............................................United States leads 2-1

- The top-seeded men’s teams in the previous six SWATCH FIVB World Championships have captured the gold medals twice. Only once (men’s 1999) have the top two-seeded teams competed in the gold medal match at the world championships.
