

FIVB Beach Volleyball World Tour Format Overview 2017-2020

1. FIVB BEACH VOLLEYBALL EVENT LANDSCAPE

2. FIVB BEACH VOLLEYBALL WORLD TOUR

FIVB Beach Volleyball World Tour (FIVB WT) is a circuit of professional international beach volleyball events, recognized by the FIVB, and held seasonally (might also fall across 2 years) and is crowned by the FIVB World Tour Finals defining the FIVB World Tour Finals Champion.

The new 5-star event categories, under the FIVB Beach Volleyball World Tour, aim to grow the sport based on a sustainable business model with flexible commercial rights. All FIVB Beach Volleyball World Tour events benefit of FIVB's endorsement and pave the "road to Tokyo 2020" in the Olympic Qualification period (a year before the Olympic Games).

This overview does not constitute an agreement or an offer but is merely provided for informational purposes. A party interested in organising a World Tour event must subsequently execute an organiser agreement with the FIV

3. ORGANISATION

3.1 Agreement format: a) tri-party agreement between FIVB, Promoter and Host Volleyball Federation, b) two-party agreement between FIVB and Promoter supported by a letter of endorsement of the Host Volleyball Federation; or c) two-party agreement between FIVB and Host Volleyball Federation (latter acting as a promoter).

3.2 Agreement length:

Stars	Years
