

FIVB MEN'S WORLD OLYMPIC QUALIFICATION PREVIEWS DAY 3 – JUNE 5, MEXICO CITY

Algeria - Chile

Head-to-head

- Algeria and Chile met once at a world level tournament. At the 1991 World Cup, Algeria beat Chile in five sets.
- Chile also lost their other match against an African side at the 1991 World Cup, 3-0 against Tunisia.
- Algeria lost their last World Olympic Qualification match against a South American team (3-0 in 2008).

Algeria

- Algeria can no longer qualify for the Rio 2016 Olympic Games after two defeats at the World Olympic Qualification tournament.
- They now have a W4-L3 record in competitive matches in 2016, with their four wins coming at the African Olympic Qualification tournament in January.
- Akram Dekkiche is Algeria's top scorer in Mexico with 25 points.

Chile

- Chile have never before qualified for the Olympic Games.
- They can make it three wins in their last four competitive matches if they beat Algeria.
- Chile beat Tunisia, the other African opponent at the Mexico World Olympic Qualification tournament, by a 3-0 score.
- Vicente Parraguire is Chile's top scorer in Mexico with 29 points, ahead of his brother Tomas Parraguire with 26 points.

Mexico - Tunisia

Head-to-head

- Mexico and Tunisia most recently met at the 2014 World League.
- Mexico won the first meeting in Mexico City in straight sets, while Tunisia won the second meeting in Tunis in five sets (25-23, 25-23, 21-25, 21-25, 15-13).
- Tunisia have played NORCECA sides on four occasions in 2015. They lost in straight sets to Canada and United States at the World Cup.
- At the 2015 World League they won and lost one match against Puerto Rico (both 3-1).

Mexico

- Mexico can qualify for the Olympic Games for the second time, after 1968, when they hosted the Games.
- They can win three matches in a row at a major tournament for the first time this century.
- Carlos Guerra leads all players in scoring at the World Olympic Qualification tournament in Mexico with 38 points.
- Tomas Aguilera and Tunisia's Khaled Ben Slimane have each scored six stuff blocks.

Tunisia

- Tunisia are hoping to participate in their seventh Olympic Games after 1972, 1984, 1988, 1996, 2004 and 2012.
- Tunisia can win two matches in a row in a major competition for the first time since four successive wins at the 2015 African Championships.
- Khaled Ben Slimane is the setter with the highest average per set in Mexico - 6.57 average by set.
- Mohamed Ali Ben Othmen Miladi has the highest efficiency as receiver - 37.04%.
