This booklet provides final information, facts and figures on the 2011 FIVB Beach Volleyball Swatch World Tour. The 2011 FIVB Swatch World Tour calendar was highlighted by six Grand Slam events and the 2011 FIVB Beach Volleyball Swatch World Championships as the international beach volleyball scheduled started in April and concluded in November.

- The 2011 FIVB Beach Volleyball Swatch World Tour circuit visited 18 sites in 16 countries over an eight-month period.
- The 2011 calendar featured 15 women's and 14 men's events within all five confederations plus one special 24-team single-gender women's test event held August 9-14 at London's Horse Guard's Parade, the venue for the 2012 London Olympic Games. The 2011 FIVB Swatch World Tour offered $7.64-million in prize money.
- Twelve of the tournaments were combined events, including the World Championships and all six Grand Slam stops. Women's-only stops were in China (Sanya), Poland (Myslowice), and Thailand (Phuket). Men's only stops were in the Czech Republic (Prague) and Morocco (Agadir)
- New stops on the 2011 calendar were the double gender event in Canada (Québec) and the first event in Morocco (Agadir) (men), after a five year absence from Africa.
- The 2011 FIVB Beach Volleyball Swatch World Championships were played in Rome, Italy from June 13 through June 19. This was the first time that Italy has hosted the World Championships.
- The tour returned to Beijing, the scene of the 2008 Olympic Games after a three year absence, with a double gender Grand Slam, the first ever Grand Slam event held in Asia. In addition, the $3.6-million FIVB Beach Volleyball Swatch World Tour Grand Slam series returned to Norway (Stavanger), Switzerland (Gstaad), Russia (Moscow), Poland (Stare Jablonki), and Austria (Klagenfurt).
- Stavanger, Gstaad, and Klagenfurt each have staged eleven or more FIVB-sanctioned Beach Volleyball events. Each site has also hosted the FIVB Beach Volleyball Swatch World Championships (Klagenfurt in 2001, Gstaad in 2007 and Stavanger in 2009).
- Brazil has staged a FIVB Swatch World Tour event every year since the start of the International circuit for men in 1987 and women in 1992.
- China staged three and Poland presented two FIVB Swatch World Tour stops in 2011.
- The men's calendar concluded with a new event in Morocco in early October while the women's tour finished in Thailand the following month.
- The International Beach Volleyball calendar also featured two other age-limit World Championships. Croatia hosted the 2011 FIVB Beach Volleyball Youth World Championships, for players under 19, June 21-26 in Umag. Canada hosted the 2011 FIVB Beach Volleyball Swatch Junior World Championships for players U-21 in Halifax, Nova Scotia Aug. 31-Sept. 4. It was the first time either nation hosted these events.
- IMG Sports Media continued to have the exclusive global distribution rights for the FIVB Beach Volleyball Swatch World Tour. In addition to match telecasts, IMG also produces a weekly FIVB Swatch World Tour highlight show.
- The FIVB Swatch World Tour continued to exclusively use the Mikasa VLS300 ball. It was introduced in 2009 in October and November at events in Sanya, China and Phuket, Thailand.

NOTE - For the 2003 and 2004 season, Swatch service awards were presented to players competing in event medal matches with the fastest serve. Starting in 2005, the leaders were tracked per center court match per event with only a player's top serve for the season being used in compiling the FIVB Swatch World Tour's top servers.
